AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of:

Eighteen (18) months. This term consists of 18 months on each of Counts 1 and 2, to be served concurrently.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of three (3) years. This term consists of three years on Counts 1 and 2, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 05-02;
2. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer;

3. During the period of community supervision the defendant shall pay the special assessment and restitution in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment;

4. The defendant shall comply with any orders/judgments entered in United States District Court, Central District of California, docket number CV-07-2959-SJO;
5. The defendant shall not engage, as whole or partial owner, employee or otherwise, in the business of providing investment advice or management without the express approval of the Probation Officer prior to engagement in such employment. Further, the defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with access to any and all business records, client lists and other records pertaining to the operation of any business owned, in whole or in part, by the defendant, as directed by the Probation Officer;
6. The defendant shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes owed for the years of conviction; and shall truthfully and timely file and pay taxes during the period of community supervision. Further, the defendant shall show proof to the Probation Officer of compliance with this order;
7. The defendant shall participate in mental health treatment, which may include evaluation and counseling, until discharged from the treatment by the treatment provider, with the approval of the Probation Officer;
8. The defendant shall apply all monies received from income tax refunds to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation. In addition, the defendant shall apply all monies received from lottery winnings, inheritance, judgements and any anticipated or unexpected financial gains to the outstanding court-ordered financial obligation;
9. The defendant shall not be employed in any position that requires licensing and/or certification by any local, state or federal agency unless he first provides evidence to the Probation Officer that he disclosed this Judgment and Commitment Order in this case to the prospective employer;
10. The defendant shall not be employed by, affiliated with, own or control, or otherwise participate, directly or indirectly, in the business, conduct, affairs or practice of law until there is a final determination/judgment by the California Bar Association and or the Supreme Court of California on the status of the defendant's license to practice law. Further, following entry of judgment on the issue and status of his license to practice law, the defendant shall comply with all requirements and restrictions related thereto;

USA vs. Sandeep BawejaDocket No.: CR09-1010-AHM

11. The defendant shall not be employed in any capacity wherein he has custody, control or management of the funds of his employers or of his clients; and
12. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample from the defendant.

The Court authorizes the Probation Officer to disclose the Presentence Report, and/or any previous mental health evaluations or reports, to the treatment provider. The treatment provider may provide information (excluding the Presentence Report), to State or local social service agencies (such as the State of California, Department of Social Services), for the purpose of the client's rehabilitation.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(d)(5), the determination of restitution is deferred to a date within 90 days of sentencing. An Amended judgement will be entered after such determination.

The amount of restitution ordered at that time shall be paid as set forth on a list which will be provided to the Court. If the defendant makes a partial payment, each payee shall receive approximately proportional payment unless another priority order or percentage payment is specified in this judgment.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $100 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least $250 or 15 percent of the defendant's gross monthly income, whichever is greater, shall be made until full restitution is made and during the period of supervised release. These payments shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(f)(3)(A), interest on the restitution ordered is waived because the defendant does not have the ability to pay interest. Payments may be subject to penalties for default and delinquency pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3612(g).

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

All fines are waived as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

To the extent defendant retained any rights to appeal, defendant advised to file a notice of appeal within fourteen days.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself/herself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons on or before 12 noon, August 16, 2010. Bond exonerated upon surrender.

Court recommends that the defendant be incarcerated in a Southern California facility.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
